Letter from Leadership

Dear Northwestern,

It has been a year since we published our first ever annual report, and in that time, we have launched Student Holding's Bigger, Better Fundraising campaign, opened our first ever office space, and launched a new company! It has been a very exciting year for the organization, but as we look forward there is still much that we can accomplish and learn from.

At the start of this year, Student Holdings leadership and board looked at our long-term vision for the organization. We had lofty goals and had many initiatives we wanted to work towards over the next three to five years. Some of those initiatives were launching a new business, investing in an official Student Holdings office space, compensating our members, hiring a full-time director, and establishing a competitive internship program.

As this year comes to a close, the Student Holdings leadership team can say that we have successfully achieved many of these initiatives. In summer of 2018, we decided to launch a pickup/delivery laundry service that serves on-campus Northwestern undergraduates. We spent the next four to five months nailing down the operations of this business, and in January of 2019 planned to launch a pilot in April and May.

Throughout fall of last year, Elana Stettin (CEO FY2019) made it a priority to search and find a suitable home for Student Holdings. She was able to negotiate a two-year lease at 1940 Sherman Avenue which officially became Student Holdings home this past March. All meetings and business-related operations have been run out of the space since March, and we are looking forward to the new culture it will foster for future Student Holdings teams.

And last but most certainly not least, we launched a performance bonus program for our members. Over the past year, it has been a goal of the Student Holdings board and leadership to properly recognize the work that members put into this organization. The team grappled with various different methods to compensate members but ultimately came to an agreement on a performance bonus program that rewards members of company teams for their hard work towards revenue/profit targets and quarterly long initiatives. By the end of May, we plan on giving out bonuses for the first time in four years.

As we reflect back on this year, we owe a huge thanks to all our customers and key supporters inside and outside of Northwestern. We set long-term goals for the organization and accomplished several in only a year's time. We have also worked to solidify and scale our core companies, NU|Tutors, Ink Tank, and RezEssentials, and over time are confident that these companies, in addition to our new laundry service, will be the key to a brighter Student Holdings future.

The Student Holdings Leadership Team

Bigger, Better Student Holdings

In December 2018, we launched Student Holdings first-ever fundraising campaign along with a three-year plan to transform Student Holdings from a student organization into an independent, student-run non-profit corporation.

We've laid out the key steps of this transformation journey:

- Spin out of NU and launch an independent 501(c)3
- Launch new businesses to increase student involvement and solidify ties with NU
- Establish physical space for collocation, community, and in-person interactions
- Pay our students for their participation and the demands of business operations
- Establish a highly competitive business internship program and enable year-round operations
- Hire a full-time director to mentor student leaders and manage the health of businesses

In June 2018, Student Holdings became a 501(c)3 tax-exempt not-for-profit organization, marking the first step on this journey.

As of May 2019, we have raised over $10,000 from more than 50 Student Holdings alumni and supporters for the campaign. Thanks to this outpouring of support, we leased and opened Student Holdings' first office and operations center at 1940 Sherman Avenue at the start of Spring Quarter. This is a big step for Student Holdings, and we couldn't have taken it without the support of the Student Holdings community.

Our other goal for 2019 is to launch our next business, laundry delivery. In April, we launched a pilot laundry service under our RezEssentials brand called RezLaundry. Students in Bobb-McCulloch, Elder and Sargent residence halls as well as in Delta Gamma sorority were able to order laundry service this spring. Working in partnership with Northwestern Residential Services, we plan to roll out our service to all Northwestern students living on-campus this coming fall.

We will be continuing the Bigger, Better Student Holdings fundraising campaign throughout 2019 and will be working to reach our goal of $50,000 raised.

Highlights from the year

Fiscal year 2019 was a busy one for NU|Tutors in developing new relationships, launching new products, and fine-tuning operations. NU|Tutors restarted its relationship with Evanston Township High School, proving to be a great partnership in giving back to the community and connecting with its leaders. Tutors made significant changes to its digital presence with a website redesign and expansion of paid-search marketing. These changes to the image of NU|Tutors coincided with the launch of a new SAT class service which we were able to execute in two successful sessions. Operationally, Tutors optimized the tutor matching process and reduced overall process time, resulting in improved conversion numbers. Supply-side problems during the summer with personnel posed a challenge to NU|Tutors but brought renewed focus to forecasting demand and hiring more strategically. Fiscal year 2019 was an exciting new direction for the company, as ambitious changes were implemented, and focus was renewed on expanding the presence of NU|Tutors in the North Shore community.

REZ ESSENTIALS

Highlights from the year

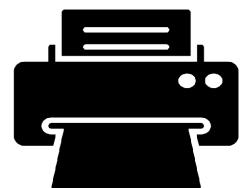

FY2019 was a rebound year for RezEssentials. After a year without operations in FY2018, we made it our mission to reestablish the Rez brand. Our marketing efforts were driven primarily by the success of emails, social media, and a variety of university advertisements. The success of our marketing campaign was mostly represented by the sale of 100+ used fridges along with approx. 20 printers - a complete sellout of inventory. The only shortcoming of the campaign was the underperformance of desk lamps, mattress pads, storage drawers, and vacuums. Apart from the reintroduction of marketing, the greatest success of FY2018 was the development of a new ops plan, which resulted in a 98% customer satisfaction. This year, RezEssentials plans to both increase the frequency with which and diversify the channels by which we interact with incoming students. We are looking to expand our marketing campaigns, improve our usage of social media sites, and learn from past failures in university advertising. These improvements, in addition to a new partnership with Bed Bath & Beyond, are projected to result in significantly greater revenue and profit.

Highlights from the year

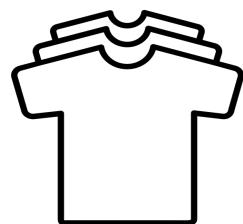

A year where Ink Tank sought to make their order process smoother, FY2018 saw numerous technological advancements within the company. Maintaining our great relationship with the Northwestern Licensing department, as well as with our Greek licensor Affinity, Ink Tank was able to produce high-quality gear to numerous groups at Northwestern University. Ink Tank led a movement through our new online merchandise store, for Northwestern University's rally to Indiana for their bid to the cup. This marked a new step forward for Ink Tank as the company now seeks to further use this platform. Ink Tank will be looking to expand to further markets such as Kellogg, whilst also promoting student-made designs through the merchandise store. Moving forward, Ink Tank is excited to continue with excellent service. The aim is to make ordering from Ink Tank an entire experience, as opposed to a sole transaction. We will always go above and beyond for our customers, and seek to emulate the successes of past years, while pushing the boundaries of our market - we are here to defy expectations.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Schedule O (Form 990 or 990-EZ), such as legislation enacted after the schedule and its instructions were published, go to www.irs.gov/Form990.

Purpose of Schedule

An organization should use Schedule O (Form 990 or 990-EZ), rather than separate attachments, to provide the IRS with narrative information required for responses to specific questions on Form 990 or 990-EZ, and to explain the organization's operations or responses to various questions. It allows organizations to supplement information reported on Form 990 or 990-EZ.

Don't use Schedule O to supplement responses to questions in other schedules of the Form 990 or 990-EZ. Each of the other schedules includes a separate part for supplemental information.

Who Must File

All organizations that file Form 990 and certain organizations that file Form 990-EZ must file Schedule O (Form 990 or 990-EZ). At a minimum, the schedule must be used to answer Form 990, Part VI, lines 11b and 19. If an organization isn't required to file Form 990 or 990-EZ but chooses to do so, it must file a complete return and provide all of the information requested, including the required schedules.
